

The Shady Grove Coffeehouse

BLUEGRASS, COUNTRY, FOLK, AND SWING!

East of Monroe is an Americana/bluegrass group based in Virginia and Maryland that returns for their second Shady Grove appearance. Their music explores bluegrass, country, folk and swing with tasteful arrangements of original compositions as well as contemporary and traditional songs, with a lineup that includes Jackie Frost, who has appeared at SGCH many times.

Deep experience and tight vocal harmony together with fresh original songwriting and talented instrumentalists combine to offer a unique sound on the American acoustic music scene. East of Monroe's music features the award-winning songwriting of Gary Alan Ferguson, Jackie Frost and Emily Timberlake.
